

"The goal of Team Tibet is to highlight Tibetans' lack of freedom as a nation, which is symbolized by their inability to participate in the 2008 Beijing Olympics. Team Tibet is a global movement challenging the Chinese government to engage in meaningful efforts to resolve the issue of Tibet."

-Choeying, National Coordinator SFT India

"The goal of Team Tibet is to highlight Tibetans' lack of freedom as a nation, which is symbolized by their inability to participate in the 2008 Beijing Olympics. Team Tibet is a global movement challenging the Chinese government to engage in meaningful efforts to resolve the issue of Tibet."

-Choeying, National Coordinator SFT India

- Since 1949, 1.2 million Tibetans have died as a direct result of China's occupation.
- 6,000 monasteries have been destroyed.
- Over 120,000 Tibetans, including the Dalai Lama, were forced to flee Tibet into exile.

- Since 1949, 1.2 million Tibetans have died as a direct result of China's occupation.
- 6,000 monasteries have been destroyed.
- Over 120,000 Tibetans, including the Dalai Lama, were forced to flee Tibet into exile.

HELP MAKE HISTORY IN 2008!

The 2008 Beijing Olympics will bring an unprecedented level of global attention to China. Tibetans and their supporters are organizing to turn the Olympic spotlight on China's brutal occupation of Tibet and build pressure for a solution.

You can help.

Join Team Tibet and show your solidarity with the Tibetan people.

www.FreeTibet2008.org

HELP MAKE HISTORY IN 2008!

The 2008 Beijing Olympics will bring an unprecedented level of global attention to China. Tibetans and their supporters are organizing to turn the Olympic spotlight on China's brutal occupation of Tibet and build pressure for a solution.

You can help.

Join Team Tibet and show your solidarity with the Tibetan people.

www.FreeTibet2008.org