

VIGIL FOR TIBETANS

KILLED IN CHINA'S CRACKDOWN

On March 10th 2008, protests erupted in Lhasa and spread to other parts of Tibet. Tens of thousands of Tibetans took to the streets in a nationwide uprising, demanding freedom.

In response, the Chinese government has launched a brutal crackdown, killing hundreds of Tibetans while injuring and detaining thousands more.

As the Chinese government takes the Olympic torch to the top of Mt. Everest in a blatant attempt to legitimize its baseless claims to sovereignty over Tibet, Tibetans worldwide are holding vigils to mourn for those killed in China's crackdown in Tibet. Over 200 Tibetans are confirmed dead in China's crackdown, although Tibetans on the ground suspect that the real death toll is much higher.

In this Olympic year when the whole world is watching, speak out for Tibet.
